Course Overview

This course provides the student with the training, skills and knowledge required to apply for Australian Communications Media Authority (ACMA) Restricted Cabling registration. The course is structured to include both theoretical and practical training. The College's cable training facilities allow for skills to be consolidated in a simulated workplace environment.

Course Requirements

If you are a security alarm installer working on domestic and small business premises and terminating incoming carrier's networks on permitted sockets or on Network Termination Devices (power source no more than 240V single or 415V three-phase) you must obtain the Restricted Cabling Registration before October 2003.

Training Modules

All modules are nationally recognised:

- ✓ NTE005 (20 hours)

Course Duration

20 hours

Cabler Registration

Upon successful course completion you will be provided with a Statement of Completion issued by the College.

The Statement of Completion will then allow students who wish to enter the telecommunications cabling industry to register with one or more of the following cabler registrars:

This course is only run on demand so therefore it will be subject to numbers. Please complete and return the registration form to register your interest, once we have enough people interested in the course we will schedule a date.
